

The Wines of Weingut Prinz Hallgarten in the Rheingau, Germany

- The proprietor of Weingut Prinz, Fred Prinz, made a name for himself as the top part-time winemaker in the Rheingau, while maintaining his day job as the winemaker at the Rheingau's largest estate, Kloster Eberbach. Since September of 2004, Mr. Prinz has devoted his energies full-time to making superb wines under the Prinz label only. This is only the beginning for this exceptional boutique German winery.

Rheingau Riesling Trocken 2008 - From vineyards above the Rhein River comes this wonderful dry Riesling at an affordable price! Flowers on the nose. Bright apples and pears on the palate with well-balanced acidity. 8 grams of sugar. Refreshing and very food friendly. "BEST BUY" 88 points Wine & Spirits

Hallgartner Jungfer Riesling Kabinett 2008 - Bursting with fruit: ripe peaches and apples with good acidity for a good zippy finish. Fantastic!! 90 points Wine & Spirits

Hallgartner Jungfer Riesling Spätlese 2006 - On the nose, citrus and tropical fruits with a little botrytis on the edges. Fully ripe peaches and golden delicious apples on the palate. Enough acidity to balance out any sweetness. 91 points Wine & Spirits

Hallgartner Jungfer Riesling Spatlese Goldkapsel 2008 - The goldkapsel comes from the original part of the Hallgartner Jungfer vineyard. 15% of the grapes were infected with botrytis. Super intense! Ripe peaches, apricots and honey. Somewhat viscous. Creamy finish. 92 points Wine Advocate

Hallgartner Jungfer Riesling Eiswein 2007 - This is the first Eiswein from Prinz that I ever tasted and it was worth every minute of the wait. Super intense with figs, dried fruits and honey. Plenty of acidity to assure a clean finish. 75 6-packs produced. 8.5% Alc. 173 grams RS/L. 92 points Wine Advocate
